

The Royal Albert Hall ~ Wednesday 30th November 2011

UCARE invites you to an evening of high class competitive tennis...

This year's event will see the singles field split into two separate tournaments. ATP Champions Tour players such as Tim Henman, Goran Ivanisevic and Pat Rafter will compete in a six-man event and, a newly created four-man "Legends" group will see old favourites Jon McEnroe, Pat Cash and Henri Leconte renew their rivalry on court. Plus watch some really entertaining doubles led by the inimitable Mansour Bahrami, who will be joined by the singles players & double's specialists Mark Woodforde and Peter McNamara.

Tickets:
£139

Includes a drinks reception/ canapés/ hot food & complimentary drinks...

+ entry into a draw where you could win items of signed memorabilia from stars such as Andre Agassi & Andy Murray.

John McEnroe's participation in the event is particularly appropriate for UCARE. He has been a prostate cancer campaigner himself since his father was diagnosed with prostate cancer a few years ago.
