

The show is now open to all gardeners within the NN12 postcode area after a large number of requests at last year's successful event. Classes for flowers, vegetables and fruit will be available, as well as cookery, handicrafts and children's items.

A fee of £2 allows all members of a family to enter as many classes as they like, and a range of trophies, cups and medals will be awarded. Staging of exhibits will run from 9am to 11am, and the show will be open to the public from 2pm to 5pm.

Schedules and entry forms are available from Towcester Town Hall. Contact Drisc Wardle on 01327 350985 or email drisc@twofacesdesign.com for more information.

Alloy wheels stolen during raid on Brackley garage

ALLOY wheels were stolen from a garage in Brackley this week.

The burglary happened at a property in Spratton Drive late on Monday, August 10.

Just before midnight thieves broke into the garage and stole two alloy wheels.

The homeowner was woken by the noise and saw them drive off in a small hatchback car.

Police would like to speak to anyone who may have witnessed this incident or who may have been offered any alloy wheels for sale in the last couple of days.

Anyone with information should contact police on 03000 111 222 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Summer bead workshop

CHILDREN can make their own fashion accessories at a bead workshop near Potterspury next Friday, August 28.

The workshop will be held at the Bead Scene Studio in Wakefield Country Courtyard near Potterspury, and is part of South Northants Council's summer activities programme.

Contact South Northants Council on 01327 322335, or visit www.southnorthants.gov.uk for more information.

Flying high over Silverstone

PILOTS from all over the globe will do battle in the skies above Silverstone Circuit in the World Aerobatic Championship next Friday and Saturday. A total of 60 pilots from 15 countries will compete to perform the most impressive aerobatic manoeuvres in a breathtaking test of courage and skill.

Trade stands and an open paddock area will be available. Visit www.silverstone.co.uk for online bookings and more information.

town Hall on September 3 and 4, the Evening of Mystery and Mirth will include the unsettling short play The Recco by Falkland L. Carey, to be followed by the comedy Café Contentionis by Anne Knight.

Teenager's 'ride' way to raise cancer cash

"However hard it is we are always going to be together, we are never going to be on our own at Christmas.

"I wrote a tribute which I read at my dad's funeral and one of the things I said and do truly believe in is that bad things have to happen to the best of people. I don't think the worst of the people would ever cope.

"The charity was always there to give us support. My dad fought for us, the charity fought for him and now I feel I should fight for them."

Rhia hopes to raise £3,000 for UCARE and has already raised nearly £600 by getting her teachers to ballroom dance during the Strictly Sponne Dancing talent competition.

If you would like to add your support to Rhia's fundraising appeal or take part in the sponsored ride visit www.justgiving.com/rhiabiscoe or call her on 07784 564157.

CHARITY RIDE: Rhia Biscoe with foal Gemandrera and mum Jane Biscoe with her late husband Paul's mare Lucy.

090813M-E8175 much headache families experience when a close family member has cancer. "I hope the money raised might help save someone's life and stop a family suffering the way my family has suffered."

Rhia described her father as a popular man who always put others first. His funeral was attended by 150 people. Rhia said she was devastated to lose her father at Christmas but added:

players' member Keni Fraser said: "The Recco is set at a pub somewhere on the south coast of the Isle of Wight in 1952.

"A man stops for a rest and the story unfolds as he undergoes a curious experience. "Café Contentious is set at a business ladies' luncheon club, and follows the ensuing conversations between the ladies."

Doors open at 7pm, and the plays start at 7.30pm each evening. Tickets are £10, and are available from Brackley Town Hall. Tickets include a cheese supper with one glass of wine, and refills will be available.

Proceeds will go to the town mayor's charities. Contact staff at Brackley Town Hall on 01280 702441 for more information, or visit www.brackleyplayers.org.uk.

Bridge club to resume

BRACKLEY Bridge Club will resume meetings on Sunday, September 13.

The friendly club welcomes new players and those aiming to improve their game.

Contact organisers on 01969 338580 or 01295 768704.

WIN
a Yamaha Scooter!

mece
Insurance

Jools' band members plough in to join line-up for pub's mini-festival

MEMBERS of Jools Holland's The pub will offer food and a spe-